

Glenwood

Guideline for Donations & Sponsorships

Company Pride

Glenwood prides itself in supporting community needs throughout its service area. As an investment in the future of the area citizens, this company has historically supported through its financial contributions those programs and projects that encourage youth, economic development, and education. The donation must be shown to specifically benefit the community.

Employees of Glenwood have generously given of their time and resources where they live, raise their families, work and play. For over a half century, the company has participated in and assisted with community projects, school activities, youth sports, local government, and other non-profit group activities. In addition, the Board of Directors recognizes the importance of giving back to the communities, especially for those events or programs that impact the communities we serve.

Not only does Glenwood offer high quality service at an affordable rate, it takes pride in bringing employees, businesses, and organizations together for the improvement of the quality of life.

Request for Funds

Groups or organizations may request a donation of funds by sending a brief description of the group or organization. The following limitations may apply in the request for funding.

Tax-exempt, non-profit organizations are eligible. Contributions are not generally given for sole sponsorships of sports teams; travel or travel-related expenses; to individuals; to organizations based outside of Glenwood's service area; to organizations of primarily religious or political focus, including campaigns for elections, or in support of elected officials for any reason at any level-- local, state, or federal; or organizations that discriminate on the basis of age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, or creed.

The Board of Directors must approve exceptions to this policy.
